FORKLIFT (NT)

TLILIC0003 - Licence to operate a forklift truck

Are you about to start a career where you will need to operate a forklift truck? Then the law states you must have a High Risk Work Licence.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Forklift operation has been classed as high risk work since 1 September 2010. To undertake this work you need a Licence to Perform High Risk Work.

Forklift truck (Class LF) - covers the operation of a powered industrial truck equipped with a mast and an elevating load carriage to which is attached a pair of fork arms or other attachment.

COURSE DURATION

This course is two (2) days.

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Plan work
- Conduct routine checks
- Shift load
- Shut down and secure forklift truck

If successful you will receive a Statement of Attainment. To receive your High Risk Licence you need to submit your completed application (provided by Civil Train), together with payment (currently $76*) and all supporting documents to the Territory Business Centre.

* Subject to change and correct at time of printing.
Please contact WorkSafeNT to confirm current licence fee.
