SHORT COURSE

READ AND INTERPRET PLANS

RIICCM203D - Read and interpret plans and job specifications

Are you required to read and interpret plans and specifications in a civil construction context?

COURSE OVERVIEW

Each civil construction job is planned and organised from the construction plans and specifications.

There are a range of plans, drawings and specifications used in civil construction to show specific details for different applications.

Whilst you will receive your work instructions and specifications as part of a work plan or works program drawn up by your project manager or site supervisor you will still need to be able to read, interpret and check your work against drawings and specifications.

This course will take you through the types of plans and specifications, verifying amendments, converting scales and interpreting symbols and dimensions.

COURSE DURATION

This course is one (1) day.

DELIVERY AND ASSESSMENT

This course is delivered and assessed face to face.

There are theory and practical training and assessment components to the course.

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Plan and prepare for read and interpret plans and job specifications
- Recognise amendments
- Recognise commonly used symbols and abbreviations
- Locate and identify key features on site plan
- Read and interpret job specifications

If successful you will receive a Statement of Attainment.

LOCATION
